Fall features full weekends to celebrate all the seasonal flavors we're craving — from bourbon and beer to apples and smoky barbecue — across the country (and in the Caribbean).

New York and San Diego's headline wine and food festivals return, Las Vegas' multi-faceted Life is Beautiful extravaganza turns five, and Portland, Maine's Harvest on the Harbor turns 10.

"The festival brings together the community and visitors alike to celebrate and experience our incredible food and drink scene," says Stefanie Manning, Harvest on the Harbor owner and producer.

Plus, Texas' best barbecue makers showcase their specialties in Austin, Dallas chefs celebrate farmers, and chef Jean-Georges Vongerichten headlines the Barbados Food & Rum Festival.

Browse the photos above for a sneak peek at food and beverage events every weekend from the unofficial start of fall to Thanksgiving. Stay tuned for Oktoberfests and wine harvests ahead.
